DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is responsive to the amendments filed 11/6//07. Claim 30-36 have been amended and claim 37 has been canceled. No other claims have been amended, added, or canceled. Acknowledgment is made of the amendment to the specification. Claims 1-36 are pending prosecution.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. More specifically, the applicant does not mention which entity determines, looks up, etc. These limitations must be positively claimed in order to define the proper scope of the claim. Appropriate corrections are required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1, 22, and 30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being anticipated by Steely Jr et al (USPAT 5,829,051) further in view of Liu (USPAT 7,096,493).

6. As to claims 1, 22, and 30, Steely Jr et al teaches a method, and computer program for determining a digital signature by at least one provider node in the network system (abstract); looking up the digital signature in an index of signatures (col 8, 49-67), and forwarding a previously compressed version of the requested file that has been stored at an intermediate node when the digital signature is found in the index of signatures (col 2, lines 46-66).

However, Steely Jr. does not specifically indicate that the digital signature is of a stored file. Liu teaches a provider server that includes a record which is indexed by a hash value computed from a particular file (col 2, lines, 30-42).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to incorporate the teachings of Liu into those of Steely Jr to increase system security.
